ARCHDIOCESE CLERGY ABUSE , CHILDHOOD SEXUAL ABUSE SURVIVORS-WITNESSES, ADVOCATES, AND CIVIL RIGHTS ATTORNEYS TO HOLD PRESS CONFERENCE

Survivors' reactions, legal analysis/next steps, reviewed starting 4 p.m., Wednesday, at Jenner Law, Baltimore

Summary

Baltimore-based Jenner Law, P.C., Baird, Mandalas, Brockstedt, Federico & Cardea, and Delaware-headquartered Grant & Eisenhofer, P.A., leading catastrophic injury law firms with vast experience representing victims/survivors of systemic sexual abuse, will hold a major joint press this afternoon to discuss the Maryland Office of Attorney General's report (scheduled for release at 1 p.m.) on its four-year investigation of the Archdiocese of Baltimore. Joined by clergy-abuse survivors, many of whom testified as part of the special criminal investigation, the lawyers and advocates for survivors' justice will review and discuss the report from their collective efforts aimed at seeking transparency and obtaining accountability through Maryland's courts as they await enactment of the Child Victims Act of 2023.
